43rd President, George W. Bush, to Deliver Keynote Address at 2012 Winter NAPE Expo

FORT WORTH, Texas (December 20, 2011) —The 43rd President, George W. Bush, will deliver the keynote address at the NAPE Charities Industry Luncheon during the 20th annual NAPE Expo February 21-24, 2012, at the George R. Brown Convention Center in Houston.

The annual luncheon is a signature event at the world's largest E&P (upstream) expo and allows participants to generously give back to NAPE Charities, as they have since 2007 by distributing a total of $1.85 million in funds to date.

"We are truly honored that President George W. Bush will be our keynote speaker. Further, we are humbled by the support that our service men and women offer. Supporting our troops with additional funds raised through this event we believe is a fitting tribute." said Vice President of Land for Cypress E&P Corporation and Chairman of NAPE Expo Operators Committee, David R. Cape.

NAPE Expo LP pays all luncheon expenses, allowing 100 percent of all monies from sponsorship, ticket and table sales to go directly to charities. The following charities will benefit from this year's event:

- Canine Companions for Independence
- Lone Survivor Foundation
- George W. Bush Presidential Center Military Service Initiative
- Operation Finally Home
- Support-A-Soldier

To purchase a ticket ($100) to the luncheon ahead of time, visit www.napeexpo.com. Registration for NAPE Expo is required for ticket purchase. Attendees will be admitted to the luncheon beginning at 11 a.m. Doors will close promptly at 11:15 a.m.
